No widespread vaccination till mid 2021, says WHO

Geneva: The World Health Organisation does not expect widespread vaccinations against COVID-19 until the middle of next year, a spokeswoman said on Friday, stressing the importance of rigorous checks on their effectiveness and safety.

None of the candidate vaccines in advanced clinical trials so far has demonstrated a "clear signal" of efficacy at the level of at least 50% sought by the WHO, spokeswoman Margaret Harris said.

Russia granted regulatory approval to a COVID-19 vaccine in August after less than two months of human testing, prompting some Western experts to question its safety and efficacy. US public health officials and

This isn't a small case," observed the bench, as it rejected Kumar's bail plea citing medical grounds.

The top court also declined to allow him to remain in hospital noting that his medical reports establishes he does not need hospitalisation. Senior advocate Vikas Singh, appearing for Kumar, submitted before the bench to consider the bail plea on the merits as the High Court verdict was faulty. Singh argued that witnesses' deposition was reversed in the trial court and High Court.

The bench said that bail cannot be granted, adding that neither the argument of faulty judgement of the High Court justifies it nor the needs hospitalisation. Senior advocate H.S. Phoolka, representing victims, opposed Singh's arguments stating that Kumar is getting adequate attention in connection with his health.
