Delhi Congress condoles deaths of CRPF personnel in Pulwama attack

New Delhi
The Delhi unit of the Congress Friday paid homage to the jawans who were killed in the Pulwama attack, one of the deadliest in Jammu and Kashmir's three decades of militancy.

Delhi Congress president Sheila Dikshit expressed "deep sorrow" and extended her condolences to the families of the slain CRPF personnel in a letter to the Governor of Jammu and Kashmir.

A condolence meeting of Congress' Delhi unit also passed a resolution, mourning death of the security personnel.

"We are anguished to learn about the tragedy in Jammu and Kashmir. We convey our heartfelt condolences to the families of the deceased," the resolution said.

Dikshit said as Congress president Rahul Gandhi has announced, the party is behind the security forces, the Jammu and Kashmir administration and the government of India in this "hour of crisis".

Karol Bagh hotel fire: Delhi govt cancels NOC of 30 hotels for violating fire safety norms

New Delhi
In the aftermath of a massive fire at a Karol Bagh hotel killing 17 people, the Delhi government has cancelled fire safety licences of 30 establishments in the area in the last two days for various violations.

Delhi Home Minister Satyendar Jain said that the fire department will intensify its drive against errant hotels across the city to prevent recurrence of Karol Bagh-like incident in the future.

Jain told reporters here that in the last two days, 45 hotels were inspected by department officials in Karol Bagh and of these, 30 were found to be violating rules and their fire safety certificates were cancelled.

According to the minister, municipal corporations and police have been asked to take necessary action to seal these establishments. On February 12, a fire tragedy at Arpit Palace hotel had claimed the lives of 17 guests.

On February 13, 23 hotels were inspected by the fire department and of this, 13 were found violating fire safety norms. Next day, 17 hotels out of 22 were found to have violated rules. We

Fire in Delhi nail polish factory, 9 labourers injured

TSN/New Delhi
A least nine labourers suffered burn injuries when a massive fire broke out in a nail polish manufacturing factory in the early hours of Friday, a fire officer said.

"Around 2.48 am, the Delhi Fire Service control room received information about a fire in a nail polish factory at West Delhi's Baswana Industrial area. Fifteen fire tenders were rushed to the spot to douse the fire, which started from a chemical container," the officer said.

"The fire was doused by 3 am but during the rescue operation, nine labourers were found injured from the spot. The victims were identified as Bablu (20), Chhotu (21), Ram Singh (21), Kanhaiya (21), Jaggu (22), Pappu (22), Ravi (25), Holi Lal (28) and Birpal (40), were admitted to a nearby hospital, where they are undergoing treatment," he added.

"The victims were working when a chemical container caught fire," the officer said.

This is the fourth major fire incident in the national capital in the last few days. On Tuesday, 17 people had lost their lives in a devastating fire at Hotel Arpit Palace in Karol Bagh.
